

I thoroughly enjoy XM Radio and its vast range of music and services, and find any attack by the National Association of Broadcasters on XM Radio's freedoms to supply its paying subscribers with quality programming an attack on my own personal freedoms. I strongly urge the FCC and all members of congress to reject NAB's petition 04-160.